HOUSE TARIFF DEBATE.

For Lack of a Quorum It Did Not Begin When Expected.

ALL LEAVES OF ABSENCE REVOKED.

Proceedings Blocked by Mr. Boutelle's
Demand For His Hawaiian Resolution.
Mr. Frye's Senate Resolution—Salient
Features of the Income Tax Measure
Explained—General Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The tariff debate of 1894 did not begin yesterday in the house, as had been expected. The Republicans showed fight at the very outset. Before the time arrived for Mr. Wilson to take the floor Mr. McCreary tried to arrange an amicable agreement by which two days (Friday and Saturday) should be given to the consideration of the Hawaiian resolution. Mr. Hitt, the Republican leader of the foreign affairs committee, expressed a willingness to acquiesce in the arrangement, but Mr. Boutelle wanted to precipitate the question immediately by calling up his resolution. Both sides were ugly, but after a lively row the speaker held that Mr. Boutelle's resolution was privileged.

The Democratic members of the ways and means committee were not willing to go ahead with the Hawaiian discussion until the tariff debate had been gotten well under way, however, and the question of consideration was raised against the Boutelle resolution. The Republicans then executed a flank movement by refusing to vote. The Democrats found themselves unable to muster a quorum. They were in check, and after reviving all leaves of absence Mr. Wilson reluctantly moved an adjournment. The Democrats confidently expect a quorum today, and the effect of Republican tactics will probably be that the Hawaiian matter will be entirely postponed until the tariff bill is disposed of.

SENATE.

Hawaiian Resolution by Mr. Frye the Most Significant Subject Touched.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The most significant thing in the session of the senate was the resolution introduced by Senator Frye declaring that it be the sense of the senate that the administration commit no overt act of interference in Hawaii pending the investigation of the imbroglio by the senate committee on foreign affairs. The evident object is to declare the sense of the senate adverse to any American interference, either direct or indirect, should any coup d'etat be resorted to for the purpose of restoring the queen. The senator asked that the resolution lie upon the table for the present, and it is expected that he will make it the subject of remarks before asking its reference to the committee on foreign affairs. The session was brief and but little business was attempted, several members being absent.

HOW IT WILL WORK.

Salient Features of the Income Tax Measure Explained.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Representative McMillin, chairman of the subcommittee in charge of the internal revenue feature of the tariff bill, outlines the salient feature of the income tax measure, which he expects to complete in a day or two, in this manner:

"The corporation part of the measure will require an inquiry on every individual to determine what amount of estate stock he holds, but the assessment will be made against and paid by the corporations in the first instance, and hence a man owning corporation stock will not be worried by assessors unless he is subject to an individual income tax. The corporation will pay the tax of each of its incorporators, and will in turn charge it up against them. But, to prevent taxing a man twice, if a corporation pays for an incorporator on the dividends he would derive he in turn is credited with that amount in assessing his general income for taxation.

"As to foreigners and foreign associations holding interest bearing securities in this country, they will be assessed the same as our own citizens. The collection of the tax will be in the hands of the collectors in the various states, but a few additional assessors and deputies will be required to work under the present revenue collectors. It should be understood that the tax will be confined to about $5,000 people, according to estimates furnished by the treasury department. The individuals taxed will be a comparatively small class. The individuals taxed will number not more than one-third as many men as were taxed under the old income tax law.

Mr. McMillin says the bill will provide means for compelling disclosures as to incomes somewhat similar to the method used by several of the states. He says the penalties for failing to report or for false reports have not yet been fixed.

Supported by Populists.

Representative Simpson said that the Populist section of congress would solidly support the income tax plan. He regards it as opening the way to free trade, saying that a tariff for revenue will be necessary as long as revenues are not raised from incomes or some other source. Mr. Simpson asserted that the plan will be immensely popular with the masses.

Representative Tarsney, one of the members of the ways and means committee who voted for the income tax, meets the objection that tremendous opposition would come from the class receiving the incomes with the laconic remark: "There are more men driving days than receiving incomes."

Nominations Considered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—An executive session of the senate was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of taking up nominations reported from committees and to which no objection is made in the senate. As there was not a quorum present a single objection was sufficient to send any nomination over, and several went over under the operation of this rule. The nomination of R. E. Preston to be director of the mint was among those called up and disposed of for the time in this way. His friends, however, do not anticipate failure when the real test shall come with a quorum present.

To Investigate All Banks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Congressman McNaghy will introduce a bill directing the controller of the currency to instruct national bank examiners to make regular examinations into the conditions of all banks of deposit. The effect of such a bill will be to bring state banks under national bank inspection. There is said to be quite a demand for this legislation among the farmers and industrial classes in Indiana, which is said to have been occasioned by the losses sustained through the failures of the Dwiggin syndicate last summer.

Spencer's Prospects Best.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Unless there is a change in the present programme Martin V. B. Spencer of Fort Wayne will be appointed pension agent for Indiana. The choice is practically limited to the Twelfth congressional district. Three candidates from there have appeared—Mr. Spencer, ex-State Senator McDonald of Columbia City and Dr. Norman Teal of Kendallville. Candidates from other localities are considered to have but little chance.

Martin's Candidacy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Congressman Martin of Indiana says the dispatches from Wabash to Indianapolis newspapers, stating that he had withdrawn from the congressional race, are untrue. He has said to several persons that it was too early yet to announce his intentions, but he is understood to be a candidate.

Quiet In Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The secretary of the navy has received from Pernambuco the following cable from Admiral Benham, on board the San Francisco: "Everything is quiet as possible throughout Brazil. There is no reason to apprehend trouble at present. Will leave here tomorrow for Bahia."

Bering Sea Policy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The secretary of state and the British ambassador are pursuing negotiations for an agreement upon regulations to police Bering sea. It is important that these regulations should be agreed upon before the opening of the sealing season.

Supreme Court In Session.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The United States supreme court reassembled yesterday for the first time after the holiday recess, and handed down a number of minor decisions.

SHREWD SWINDLER.

"Rev." Howard, whose Bogus Business Netted Him Large Sums, Convicted.

JACKSON, Tenn., Jan. 4.—After a trial of 29 days, "Rev." Dr. Howard stands convicted as charged in all the counts. The charges were using the mails for fraudulent purposes in carrying out a bogus business of securing alleged claims upon English estates for people in the United States. He had used many aliases in London, New York and other places and has been regarded as one of the shrewdest swindlers in the country.

Dr. Howard has been in the hands of the marshal since his conviction. He has not been consigned to prison, but occupies the judge's room in the courthouse where his meals are carried to him. His devoted wife is by his side all the time, cheering him with her smiles. A motion for a new trial and an arrest of judgment will be argued today.

The United States marshal has arrested Edward Smith, W. J. Glendon and George Healey, three of Dr. Howard's New York witnesses, charged with perjury. Being unable to give bond they were committed to jail.

ANARCHISTS TREMBLE.

Ten of Them Likely to Die Soon by Being Shot In the Back.

MARION, Jan. 4.—Telegrams received here from Barcelona say that 10 of the arrested anarchist leaders were handed over yesterday by the civil to the military authorities, owing to the fact that the latter have declared that the prisoners were accomplices of Pallas in his attempt upon the life of General Martinez Campos and that they must consequently be tried by martial law. The anarchists were terror-stricken, as they expected they were being led out for immediate execution. It is believed that they will soon be tried by court-martial and be executed by being shot in the back, after the manner followed in the case of Pallas.

McDonald Not Among Them.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senator McDonald, sitting in the court of oyer and terminer yesterday, dismissed the indictments against five of the directors of the Madison Square bank—Charles E. Solover, F. E. Karsheed, Simon Ottenburg, Emil Frankel and A. S. Kalischer.

Channel Gate.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—A heavy gale prevailed in the channel last night. The boat from Dover to Calais was unable to cross. Huge waves washed over the promenade pier at Dover. The fishing fleet from Ramsgate has suffered much damage from the storm.

NOTHING BUT EMBERS.

Great Buildings In Two Cities
Reduced to Ashes.

MILLION DOLLAR LOSS IN TOLEDO.

Flames Start In an Elevator on the River Front and Are Spread by the Winds—Aid From Other Cities Called For—Wholesale House In Detroit Consumed, With a Quarter Million Loss.

TOLEDO, Jan. 4.—Fire last night caused a loss of nearly $1,000,000. It broke out in the elevator of F. N. Quayle & Co., on the river, fronting on Madison and Water streets. The cause is as yet unknown.

An explosion of dust caused a general alarm. The elevator, with its contents, were entirely destroyed. A strong north-west wind carried the flames across Madison street to the elevator and burned the block of C. A. King & Co., which is also a total loss. The flames also spread westward across Water street to the rear of a large 5-story business block, known as the Chamber of Commerce building, owned by Hon. T. F. Brown and occupied by the Western Union Telegraph company, and a large number of offices, which was also destroyed. From this the flames spread south to the next building, five stories high, occupied as a museum and theater known as Wonderland, managed by C. H. Moore. This was gutted within a few minutes. The next building southward was the wholesale drug house of West & Truax, which is also a total loss. A strong fireball checked the flames in this direction. To the west they leaped across Summit street, the chief retail district of the city, injuring the Harvard building, but the fire was here checked without great damage. In the rear of this building is the office of the Postal Telegraph company, the manager of which removed all the apparatus possible, thus cutting off all telegraphic communication for a time, as the Western Union office and instruments were destroyed in toto. A 2-story block on the northwest corner of Water and Madison streets, diagonally across from the Quayle elevator, was also destroyed.

Owing to the high wind, help was requested from the nearest cities and responded to promptly by Cleveland, Detroit and Adrian. The two latter reached the city before the fire was under control and rendered efficient service. There was fortunately no fatalities, although Captain Frazier of Company I was overcome by smoke and reported killed, but he is all right. This was the largest fire which has visited Toledo for the past 20 years.

BLAZE IN DETROIT.

Quarter of a Million Lost by the Burning of Business Houses.

DETROIT, Jan. 4.—Fire started from some unknown cause in the third story of the J. H. Hinchman & Sons wholesale drug house about 8:30 last evening. The entire four stories were shortly beyond saving and the firemen directed their efforts to adjoining buildings. The building extended through the block from Jefferson avenue to Woodbridge street, with an addition on the Woodbridge street end. Adjoining the latter is Standart Bros. wholesale hardware house, which also suffered heavily from fire and water. W. H. Edgar & Co., wholesale sugar dealers, sustained a loss of several hundred dollars from fire, which had broken out in the building occupied by Louis Blitz & Co., fancy glass manufacturers, was somewhat damaged, with small loss on stock. The Hinchman house was one of the oldest and largest in the state. The entire loss will be about $250,000.

MET THEIR FATE AT SEA.

Crews of Small Vessels Perish In Terrible Gale.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—The Norwegian bark Eluar has arrived here from Tonster after a thrilling passage. Owing to the terrific weather, Captain Claussen was compelled to desert a sinking and damaged brigantine and leave her crew of 12 men to their fate. The brigantine, which was carrying four men, was sighted. Every effort was made to reach them, but a sea swept them over and they were never afterward seen.

Employees and the Courts.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The executive officers of several of the leading organizations of railway employees are in session here today to discuss questions involved in the relations between the federal courts and railway employees. The chief thing before the meeting is a plan for the arbitration of disputes between the employees and the government.

Damages Against Legislators.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 4.—The legislators who last winter seized the books of John J. Rhodes in their investigation of the coal combine were yesterday mulcted $500 damages each in suits brought by Rhodes. The state pays the costs.

Dropped Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Charles S. Larrabee, president of the Larrabee iron and machine works at Bath, Me., dropped dead of heart failure late yesterday afternoon at the Indian Head proving grounds on the Potomac river.

Overdose of Chloral.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 4.—Dan Saffrans, aged 52 years, a prominent politician and influential citizen, died at his home in this city yesterday from an overdose of chloral.

BANK SAFE BLOWN.

Robbers Carried Away $25,000 and Left No Clue.

BELVIDERE, Ills., Jan. 4.—One of the boldest and most daring pieces of safe blowing and bank robbing ever perpetrated in northern Illinois was committed at the little town of Franklin Grove, in Lee county, some time Tuesday night, by which the Franklin Grove bank, operating under the state laws, was looted of nearly $35,000 in cash and valuable papers. The robbers after completing their clever job got out of town as quickly as they came and left no trace by which their identity can easily be discovered. Nothing was known of the robbery until the bank officials came down to open the concern for business. On entering the bank they were startled to find the vault doors open, papers strewn about the floor and everything in general confusion.

The report of the bold robbery quickly spread about the ordinarily quiet little village, and all kinds of rumors were afloat as to the amount the bank had lost. The bank officials at once closed the doors and refused to make a statement. They immediately wired to Chicago for detectives to be placed on the case and until they have investigated the matter will refuse to make a statement to the public. The bank is one of the most solid of the kind in this section, however, and the depositors for many of the wealthy farmers. The deposits average over $50,000 and have been heavier than that of late. No one in the village heard the report when the safe was blown open, and as the town has no police the robbers easily got away.

Pennyroy's Statements Contradicted.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 4.—At a special meeting of the chamber of commerce in this city yesterday afternoon resolutions were introduced contradicting and condemning the statements contained in Governor Pennyroy's Christmas letter to the residents of Cleveland. After a heated debate the resolutions were referred to a committee of seven for amendment. The committee will report Saturday. The resolutions as introduced contain figures showing that greater destitution prevails in many states and cities than in Oregon and Portland.

Comfortably Fixed Thieves.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—A robbers' roost, rich with plunder, has been found beneath the floor of the great agricultural building at the world's fair grounds. The thieves escaped, but much valuable stolen property was recovered. The den was sumptuously furnished with Turkish rugs, fabrics from foreign looms, rich draperies and comfortable divans. Fine brandies, high-priced wines and imported cigars were scattered about the place in great confusion.

Two Union Depot Accidents.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 4.—In two accidents at the immense Union depot in course of construction here six lives were endangered and one of them probably lost. By the giving way of a rope used in elevating an iron beam Christopher Burlette and Joseph McElright were precipitated to the ground. The latter received probably fatal injuries. A little later a carpenter's scaffold fell, and with it four men, all of whom received severe injuries.

Mitchell's Courage Restored.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 4.—Unless something of a most unexpected nature turns up the Corbett-Mitchell battle will surely take place. It is probable that the original plan will be fully carried out, but if this is found impossible a secret battleground will be selected somewhere within the limits of Duval or St. Johns county. Mitchell has been persuaded to fight at Jacksonville, N. C.

Thinks Feixoto Will Win.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Thomas Connor of this city has returned from Brazil, where he has been looking after the coffee interests of his business house. He was in Rio at the time of the outbreak of the Mello rebellion and asserts that it is not true that the people are against Feixoto, who has the confidence of the business interests save the English. He thinks Feixoto will win.

Populist Convert.

TOPEKA, Jan. 4.—Rev. A. S. Embree, pastor of the leading Methodist church of this city, famous as an advocate of prohibition and temperance, announcing in his allegiance to the Republican party, has declared his independence of political parties and has taken a stand on the social question which ranks him with Mrs. Lense and other prominent Populists.

Pennsylvania Republicans.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 4.—The Pennsylvania Republicans yesterday nominated Galusha A. Grow of Susquehanna for congressman-at-large on a platform demanding the Wilson bill and the administration's Hawaiian policy. Chris Ferguson, an opponent of Wilson, was elected to the Pittsburgh district were running operations.

Ohio Alliance Demands.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 4.—At a conference of the leaders of the Farmers' Alliance in Ohio a resolution was adopted demanding the removal of J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture. They favor the secretary's removal by the state of the people. They will also draft a letter to Secretary Carlisle, asking that no more bonds be issued.

Want Everybody to Sign.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 4.—A Duluth special to the Pioneer Press says: A monster petition against the free iron ore provision of the Wilson bill is to be sent to congress from St. Louis county. An effort is being made to secure the signature of every voter on the Vermilion and Mesaba iron ranges. One of those pushing the movement is A. E. Humphreys, a lifelong Democrat.

NEWS FROM ONE STATE.

Important Happenings Within Indiana's Borders.

QUEER STORY IN A MURDER CASE.

New Members Chosen For the State Board of Agriculture—Analytical Chemist's Bill Disallowed—Conference of Populist Leaders—Made Blind by the Use of Quinine—Other Dispatches.

PERU, Jan. 4.—Late developments in the arrest of George Kohler, charged with the murder of Mrs. Gottlieb Stahl in December, 1884, at Toledo, show a curious state of affairs. Instead of Mrs. Kohler being divorced and giving her former husband up for the reward and vengeance, it seems that she eloped with Frank C. Drake and went to Bunker Hill, Ind. Kohler traced her through many towns and finally located them there, where they were running a hotel. Hearing of Kohler's advent in town Mrs. Kohler and Drake closed the hotel to guests, barring the doors. Then ensued a lively controversy between the trio, the city marshal being the bearer of the different notes between the parties. Finally, worn out by the persistence of her husband, Mrs. Kohler sent the following note:

You must go away, George, and not molest me any more, or I will tell what I know about the Stahl murder case at Toledo. Can you prove where you were that night?

Kohler being unable to read the letter, it was handed to a third party named Harper, and he determined to ascertain the truth in the matter. Harper persuaded Kohler to go to Toledo with him, in the meantime communicating with the Toledo police, which resulted in his arrest upon his arrival.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Kohler was yesterday discovered in this city by the Toledo superintendent of police, who had looked for her at Peru and then came here. He wants her story in full and she last night returned to that city with him.

TEN GASHES IN HIS THROAT.

Disappointed Aspirant For Office Ends His Own Life.

SHELBYVILLE, Jan. 4.—David Loudon, a justice of the peace, 67 years old, one of the best known men in the county, was found dead with his throat cut in his office. It was a case of suicide. He had removed his clothing, save an undershirt, and with a small pocketknife had cut 10 gashes in his throat before death came. About two years ago he was found up the river with his throat cut, having attempted suicide, and was confined for a time in an asylum. The deceased was despondent because he failed to be appointed storekeeper by Collector Bracken.

Quinine Driving Him Blind.

MORRISTOWN, Jan. 4.—New Year's was a sad holiday for Rev. James Mendell and wife of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place. Mr. Mendell is slowly going blind through the carelessness of a Lawrenceburg druggist. Some time ago, while visiting in that place, Mr. Mendell was ill one day, and his wife, instead of giving him the proper medicine, gave him a heavy dose of quinine which a druggist had sent out without a label. The medicine had an awful effect upon the preacher. For some time he could neither see nor hear. Then he rallied, and it was believed that his senses would completely recover their faculties. Now he is going blind from the effects of the quinine.

The Thirteen Superstition.

MUNCIE, Jan. 4.—During the holidays Mrs. Peter McPherson attended a party, a social gathering at which there were 13 guests. Some one superstitiously inclined remarked that before many weeks some one of the number would die. Mrs. McPherson at once felt ill and was removed to her home. Tuesday she died. Just before her death the dread of the superstitions number seemed to come back to her, and she exclaimed: "The Lord's will be done." She leaves a daughter who is 13 years old.

Owens Not So Bad.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—The Marion county grand jury has returned a bill of indictment against Owen for the murder case progresses many facts are developing to show that Owens is not the cold-blooded murderer he has been painted. He has always been a shiftless fellow, but some of the state's witnesses have testified that the men had quarreled, and Biggs was seen to raise a cane and start toward Owens, who retreated as far as the fence, when he drew a revolver and fired the fatal shots.

Eisenbeis' Bill Disallowed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—The Marion county grand jury has refused to allow Dr. Eisenbeis' bill, or any part thereof, for making analyses in the Koesters poisoning case. The officials hold that the work was not of a satisfactory character and of no actual value to the county in the prosecution of the Anna Wagner case. The doctor will probably sue.

Constrains From Laporte.

LAPORTE, Jan. 4.—A petition bearing the signatures of 2,000 woolen mill operatives protesting against the passage of the Wilson tariff bill was forwarded to Washington yesterday. Similar remonstrances representing other branches of industry are in circulation in every manufacturing town in northern Indiana.

Populist Conference.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—Representatives of the People's party met at English's hotel yesterday afternoon and talked over the prospects of the party in Indiana.

J. Strange, the chairman of the state committee, says the work of perfecting the party organization will be pushed from this on.

Down an Embankment.

BOURBON, Jan. 4.—A wreck on the B. and O. railroad near Bremen resulted in one person being killed and several injured. No. 130, loaded with passengers for Chicago, left the track, four cars being hurled down an embankment. A tramp, who was afterward identified as Warren Himpel of Pittsburg, who was stealing a ride, was instantly killed and a number of trainmen were injured, but not dangerously. The passengers received a rough shaking up.

New State Board Members.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—Members of the state board of agriculture for eight districts were chosen yesterday afternoon, as follows: First, Robert Mitchell; Second, J. S. McCoy; Third, W. W. Stevens; Fourth, J. W. Lagrange; Seventh, W. B. Holton; Fourteenth, C. B. Harris; Fifteenth, Aaron Jones; Sixteenth, J. E. McDonald; J. M. Sankey of Terre Haute was chosen president.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Senator Faulkner and Miss Whiting United In a Historic Church.

FORT MONROE, Va., Jan. 4.—Of the many brilliant weddings that have taken place in old St. John's church at Hampton during the 250 years of its existence that of Senator Faulkner and Miss Whiting yesterday afternoon easily heads the list. The party comprising the eight groomsmen and bridesmaids advanced from the wings and formed in the main aisle to receive the bride. The organ and orchestra commenced playing the wedding march from "Lohengrin," when a chorus of eight young ladies, friends of the bride, all dressed in pink chiffon over satin, sang the march as they advanced to meet the bride, who entered at this moment on the arm of her father and passed through the lines thus formed to the chancel, where the groom and his best man smilingly awaited her arrival. They were followed by the bridal party and ushers, who took positions on either side of the altar. Rev. Dr. Bryan then proceeded with the Episcopal marriage service. The senator and his bride left for the south last night.

RARE INSTANCE OF CRUELTY.

Suffering Soldier Becomes Dumb From Atrocious Treatment.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The West Faelische Rundschau publishes the following story: A guardsman on duty at Friedrichshof was attacked with a bad chill and went into the barracks and sat down by a stove. A noncommissioned officer entered and spying the guardsman exclaimed: "What a soldier sitting by the fire." With this he picked up a jug of icy water and emptied its contents over the soldier's head. The soldier was afterward taken dangerously ill and was taken to the hospital. He has become dumb.

Greif's Opinion of Pentecost.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Thomas Greif, a prominent anarchist and the owner of Greif's hall, which the Chicago anarchists recognize as headquarters, says in an interview that he does not censure Hugh Pentecost for retracting statements he made at the time of the anarchist trial. "In the first place, I think it is only newspaper talk," said Greif. "Still, he might do such a thing and it would be all right. He is working in the interests of his own bread and butter. Anyway, he is all right."

Alleged Fraudulent Failure.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—In a court bill filed charges of fraud are made in connection with the recent failure here of the Hovey Dibble company. It is charged that fraudulent judgments were entered on the day of the failure.

Miners' Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—The strike of the coal miners in the Wheeling division of the Baltimore and Ohio is now complete. About 3,000 men are interested and the struggle will likely be a stubborn one.

Teller Wants More States.

DENVER, Jan. 4.—Senator Teller left for Washington last night. He says he will work and vote for the admission of Utah, New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma as states.

THE BANNER TIMES gives the news while it is fresh.

THE Richmond Independent has come out squarely for republicanism. It has seen the error of being partially democratic.

THE report that Cleveland is dissatisfied with his cabinet is probably correct. Gresham is undoubtedly a disappointment to the president and his party. Carlisle seems not to have suited either the chief or the silverites during the financial crisis, although the country at large has no serious fault to find with him, while Hoke Smith and Olney have not satisfied anybody in their party or out of it and have dissatisfied many. A change in this half of the cabinet would be agreeable to a large element of the democracy.

THE program is to push the Wilson bill to passage within the current month. Why give so much leeway? In the light of the Chicago platform, that fearful and wonderful diagram of statesmanship, the reform of the tariff might as well be accomplished in a day. Logically the party in power should pass it as one takes a pill, with the eyes shut and in one time and two motions. In fact there would be as much real consideration shown American industries in that way as in prolonging the agony for the twenty-seven days remaining in this month.

THE action of the DePauw trustees in doing away with the ladies' dormitory and boarding hall will meet with popular approval here in Greencastle. There are many of our citizens who have for years made a living by renting rooms and boarding students, who have felt since the establishment of the hall that the boarding field had thus been greatly curtailed. There are many vacant rooms and empty places at boarding houses and private residences in the city this year, and the new plan will be heartily endorsed by those depending on the students' expenditure in this line. It will also stimulate the local grocery and produce market, for the fact that more of these articles will be sold here is a good one.

do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome.

Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices, and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

COR. WASHINGTON AND WATER STS.

Death of Col. John R. Mahan.

Last evening at 7:20 o'clock one of the oldest of Greencastle's citizens departed this life. We refer to the death of Colonel John R. Mahan. Mr. Mahan had been ill for some time. For a year his health has been gradually failing, and in the last few months he rarely was able to leave his home. Nervous exhaustion was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Mahan was in his seventieth year, and was one of the best known men in the county. He came to this city with his father when a boy in 1824, was raised here and spent nearly all his life in the county. He was one of the closest and best financiers in the county, and by strict attention to business amassed a fortune of considerable size, variously estimated from $75,000 to over $100,000 in value. The tax duplicates of the county bear this out, as he was one of the heaviest tax-payers, if not the heaviest, in Putnam. He was a stockholder in the First National bank for a long time, and two years ago was elected a director in that institution. In military affairs Mr. Mahan took an active part, and in the call to arms in the early sixties was among the first to respond. In the organization of troops he was very active and was a close confidant of General Morton. He saw considerable field duty, however. Col. Mahan was lieutenant colonel of the 14th Indiana regiment. He resigned Jan. 30, 1862, and entered the 55th Indiana regiment in July of the same year. August 13, 1862, he entered the 115th regiment as colonel, and commanded the brigade consisting of the 115th, 116th, 117th and 118th regiments in the campaign of Tennessee. He was mustered out of service in February, 1864.

Mrs. Mahan, the aged consort of the deceased, has been sick herself with pneumonia and la grippe for several weeks, but has been much better the past few days. She was able to leave her bed at the time of the death of her husband, and was one of the party at his bedside, calmly assisting in making his last moments as comfortable as possible. Mrs. M. B. Lake, of Indianapolis, the local relatives and Miss Ellen Nelson, the faithful servant, were present at the death scene. Miss Nelson, for twenty-two years, has been the confidential housekeeper and near servant of Mr. and Mrs. Mahan.

The funeral will be under the military ritual of the G. A. R. The post will meet at seven o'clock tomorrow evening to make final arrangements. The funeral will occur Saturday at one o'clock, p. m.

THE TRUSTEES MEET.

SESSIONS OF THE DEPAUW BOARD YESTERDAY.

Many Matters of Importance Definitely Settled—Plans for Next Year—No Changes in Faculty for the Present—Full Official Report of the Deliberations.

For several months, in fact ever since the adjournment of the DePauw trustees last June, the January meeting of the board, as set for this week has been eagerly, and in some cases anxiously, looked forward to. Since the arrival of the members of the board this week, and all during their secret sessions, there has been much speculation and guessing as to their purposes, and in many cases wild and numerous unnecessary rumors have been set afloat. The BANNER TIMES, with its usual enterprise, and no little amount of persistence, is able today to place before its readers a full report of the board's deliberations and actions. In Greencastle, the seat of the university, the interest is always stronger than elsewhere in the affairs of the great institution which is such a large part of our community. The sessions began yesterday afternoon and closed last night about midnight. Through the kindness of President John we append herewith the official report of the meeting, and as it comes direct, it is, of course, absolutely correct. It is as follows:

No action was taken by the board affecting any enterprise, department or school for the current year.

In view of the financial stress everywhere, some slight reductions were made in some of the salaries, but not to take effect this year.

In view of the great demand in so many of our city homes for student lodgers and boarders, and also of the pressure upon the university for more room for general university purposes, it was decided to close the woman's hall and dormitory after this year for its present purposes, and devote the room thus saved to other pressing demands. It has not, however, been determined definitely to what use the building will be put.

No change was ordered in either the music or art schools.

It was decided to suspend the law school at the close of the present year, until such time as the finances will justify its reopening on an enlarged scale.

The college of liberal arts will be strengthened by the division of the chair of History and political science, Prof. Weaver to continue in charge of political science, and Andrew Stephenson, Ph. D., to take charge of the new chair of history. Dr. Stephenson is an alumnus of DePauw university, of the class of '82, and has been teaching almost continuously since his graduation. He spent some years in post graduate work in history in Johns Hopkins university, from which institution he took his doctor's degree. For about three years he has been associate professor in Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., one of the best of the New England universities. It is not certain that he will accept the appointment, but it is understood that he will do so. None of these provisions are to go into effect until the beginning of the next university year in September.

Dr. H. A. Gobin, dean of the school of theology, was elected vice-president of the university, to take effect at once. During the present administration there has been no vice president, Dr. Martin having performed the ordinary duties of that office.

It was recommended to discontinue the honor scholarship system, provided the other colleges of the state do likewise. It is probable that a new system of scholarships will be devised, in which the holders thereof will be subjected to a competitive examination at the time of their admission to the freshman class.

Dr. Duvall was continued by the board as instructor in philosophy, to be in charge of that department for the remainder of the college year. No permanent provision has yet been made for the duties of the chair.

The board gave thorough consideration to the financial interests of the university, and are hopeful that the diminution in expenses effected at their meeting, together with the gifts from the friends of the university, will result in bringing the expenses within the income.

The meeting of the board was one of great harmony, and the outlook for the university is very encouraging.

Says an Exchange.

An exchange makes a few very sensible remarks as follows:

The foundation of society rests on the homes. The success of our homes rests on the wives. Therefore, first of all, teach our girls to be successful wives. Begin in their infancy to develop their characters. Teach them that jealousy is an immorality, and gossip a vice. Train them to keep the smallest promise as sacredly as an oath, and speak of people only as they would speak to them. Teach them to look for the best quality in every one they meet, and to notice other people's faults only to avoid them. Train them to do small things well, and to delight in helping others, and instill constantly in their minds the necessity for sacrifice for others' pleasure as a means of soul-development. Once given a firm foundation of character like this, which the poorest as well as the richest can give to their girls, and no matter what necessity arises, they will be able to rise above it.

Associated Charities.

Mr. Chapin would like to say that the supplies for the needy left at his store are now exhausted; they were mainly the offerings of the school children, who doubtless little thought that their little gifts would make probably hundreds of hearts happier for what they did that day, for there have been over eighty children brought there and clothed, besides taking home good, large bundles for others who could not come. Besides the clothing, which included every garment of food wears, some twenty baskets of food from this source alone have been delivered. One kind lady brought in thirty-five pairs of new mittens to "be put upon little cold hands," which, of course, was not included in the children's offering. It has been a laborious task, but the work was not grudging, being done in the name of One for whom too much cannot be done. X.

old blue and white. It may, however, be made in any desired material and colors.

The skirt is plain, just rests upon the floor in the back, and is finished with a full fall of the silk. The sleeves are full to the elbow, and the belt and shoulder knots are of black velvet. A deep frill of yellow lace finishes the neck, which is half low.

A Foreign Façade.

A letter from Homburg, the Anglo-Turkish spa, says that the latest fashion among the fashionable belle there is the wearing of a jeweled watch on the outside wrist of a glove, fastened in the same way as in a cardcase. All the elegantes carry their timepieces on the left wrist in this way, and the effect is rather pretty.

Remember one thing about excellence in pneumatic tires.

There must be an inner tube removable through the rim. Victors are built that way and they lead the world. The most elegant bicycle catalog ever seen is yours if you say so.

The day of prayer for colleges will be observed by DePauw university on January 25. Dr. T. I. Coultas will preach the sermon.

On January 17, 1894, the university will celebrate Founders' and Benefactors' day. Dr. C. N. Simms, of Meridian Street church, Indianapolis, will deliver the address.

The coming first meeting of the Putnam county poultry show will be of much advantage to the city. Patronize the fanciers liberally, and next year a large exhibit will be assured.

Rev. W. J. Johnson will preach at Limestone M. E. church on Sunday evening next and lecture on Thursday evening following on "The Sights and Scenes at the World's Fair."

Dr. J. H. Mack, of Chicago, has been meeting many of his old friends during his short stay in the city. He is in good health and has about fully recovered from his serious attack of sickness of a year or so ago.

J. T. Norris, the celebrated detective, left yesterday afternoon. It was rumored that he was after bigger game here than we mentioned in last issue. Mr. Norris looks like a farmer, and is as hard as they make them. He has landed many a desperate criminal.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meltzer and Charles Meltzer arrived home this morning from Cincinnati, where they had been called by the serious illness of the mother of Messrs. Meltzer. To a reporter Mr. H. Meltzer stated that his mother was much better, her illness having resulted from a fall.

Superintendent Watt, of the gas company, states we got the name of his company wrong yesterday. We give it again today. It is "The Greencastle Gas, Electric Light and Power company." We suggest to the genial John that he use the rather elongated name for a pipe line on some of the side streets where more mains are needed.

Miss Herbert, one of the teachers of the Cloverdale schools, was in the city today and stated that diphtheria was causing quite a scare in that little place. The family of F. M. Conner, visiting there from Indianapolis, brought a bad case with them. The schools have been dismissed temporarily, and the M. E. revival has been closed. The local authorities hope this action will avert further danger.

The Dr. Howard who was convicted in Jackson, Tenn., on yesterday, charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes, in securing alleged claims to English estates, had one victim in Greencastle. Our telegraph service today gives the particulars.

George Helms, of south Putnam, who has been in jail charged with selling a horse not his property, was before Mayor Case this morning. He waived examination, plead not guilty and was remanded back to jail to await court action, in default of $100 bail. He sold a horse to James T. Mr. Adler, of the Boston store, received this week from a Chicago friend an ordinary piece of blotting paper, which contained the advertisement of the "New Idea" restaurant at 303 south Clark street. The restaurant is certainly a new idea as to prices. The bill of fare is as follows: Coffee, tea or milk, 2c; rolls or doughnuts, 1c; pie, 3c; hot cakes, 4c; steak or roast, 5c; two eggs, 7c; ham and eggs, 12c; sandwich, 4c; big meal, 15c, eight for $1, with good cigar thrown in.

If you have a little farm or business and are out of debt, don't fret and work yourself and good wife into the grave for the sake of making money. You have but one life to live, and it is brief at best. Take a little comfort as you go along day by day and try to do a little good to others. A morbid, insatiable desire to possess the earth, to grab everything in sight, is at the foundation of more misery than almost any other thing. Wealth alone will never keep your memory green after you are gone—a good life and kind actions will.

Miss Laura Stoner, who resides just west of town, entertained a number of her friends last evening. Everybody enjoyed themselves, and in the small hours of the morning many queer creatures could be seen plodding their way towards town, for it was a masquerade. Those present were: John Hunt, Leland Bass, Charles Arnold, Albert Graham, Thomas Darnall, Rogers Burlingame, Andrew Lockridge, Jamie Cannon, George Black, Omer Stoner, Ned Zink, Darwin Barnaby, Joe Piercy, Henry Higert, Ed Hunt, Edith Stoner, Mary Hibbitt, Kate Milligan, Belle Graham, Florence Pruitt, Lizzie Walls.

On next Sunday at College Avenue M. E. church the Sunday school, under direction of Mr. Hiram Allen, superintendent, will conduct what will be "Rallying Day" exercises. The program will be of a varied and interesting nature and will be made up of musical numbers by Misses Alta Dale, Stella Jordan, Mr. Wilbur Starr and others; a recitation by Miss Ida Weaver, and class exercises by the school. The entertainment will begin promptly at two o'clock.

The superintendent is very desirous that all attending will come promptly by two o'clock, so that the exercises will not be disturbed by any late arrivals.
